MIAMI BEACH, Fla., May 12, 2011 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- WCS Lending, a nationally-licensed mortgage bank, is now the preferred lender for all Fontainebleau employees through their participation in the PerksCard Network.

WCS Lending appointed Senior Mortgage Banker Matt Weaver to serve Fontainebleau employees and to extend his expertise and knowledge of WCS Lending's loan products. "I am looking forward to developing relationships with Fontainebleau employees and providing them with unparalleled service," stated Matt Weaver.

"Our partnership with PerksCard provides Fontainebleau Miami Beach employees with the corporate benefit of direct access to the broadest array of mortgage products available through our premiere nationwide retail channel, providing the cardholder and their friends and family with significantly discounted rates and preferred loan terms," says Carlos Cepeda, Managing Partner at WCS Lending.

Established in 2001 by managing partners Carlos Cepeda and Eric Wallberg, WCS Lending has grown into one of the largest privately-held mortgage banks in the United States. Headquartered in Boca Raton, Florida with flourishing offices in New York City, Rye, New York, Southfield, Michigan and Columbus, Ohio, WCS Lending provides mortgage solutions to residential and commercial clients nationwide. With emphasis on client service, innovative products, competitive pricing and proprietary technology WCS Lending is positioned as a leader in the mortgage industry. WCS Lending offers a complete line of loan products, including but not limited to: purchase or refinance; conforming, jumbo and super jumbo loans; FHA/VA/USDA loans; fixed/adjustable rate mortgages and reverse mortgages.

PerksCard is an employee sponsored savings program in which merchants are able to offer discounts to employers, organizations and associations on a national level. Currently, there are millions of cardholders who benefit from the savings that Perks has to offer.
